DESCRIPTION

Chair designed by André Sornay, a leading figure of Lyon's design scene and a pioneer of knock-down furniture, created in the late 1950s.

Crafted from solid ash, it features legs assembled with Sornay's signature box joint system. The seat is upholstered in a soft cream bouclette fabric, paired with a veneered backrest that adds elegance and structure. Its clean lines, refined materials and technical ingenuity make it a timeless piece that fits seamlessly in both modern and classic interiors.

Seating height: 18.9 inches

Manufacturer: Sornay Meubles, Lyon, circa 1955.
