DESCRIPTION

Price per chair.

Rare find : a large set of chairs available individually, crafted by the skilled hands of Christian Durupt. A master artisan of French origin, Durupt's legacy in fine woodworking during the 1960s remains strong. Laden with history, these chairs come from the ski resort of Méribel in the French Alps.

Each chair features a structure made of solid pine, a wood species prized for its robustness. The four tapered legs provide a solid and elegant base, while the thick seat and bucket back ensure a certain level of comfort.

Provenance: Méribel, France, circa 1960.
