DESCRIPTION

The D80 "Grand Repos" armchair by Jean Prouvé is an iconic model that truly embodies his creative craftsmanship. Originally designed between 1928 and 1930, this piece was reintroduced by Tecta around 1981.

Its high backrest and deep blue leather seat combine comfort and elegance, further enhanced by its two seating or reclining positions. All of this is supported by a double-profiled steel base equipped with front casters.
