DESCRIPTION

Pair of Stall armchairs by Christian Liaigre, crafted in satin varnished solid sycamore with navy blue leather upholstery.

Each armchair features four tapered square-section legs, the rear ones gently angled backward. The trapezoidal seat sits on a straight front apron with a curved lower frame. Full wooden arm supports extend into a curved solid backrest, giving the piece a structured yet comfortable silhouette. A small raised triangular detail highlights the refined junction between backrest and arm supports, a signature element of Liaigre's precise approach to proportion and construction.

A representative example of the designer's aesthetic, combining purity, comfort and noble materials.
