DESCRIPTION

This gallow arm lamp, crafted entirely in pine, is distinguished by its clean lines and minimalist design, a creation by the Lyonnais cabinetmaker and designer André Sornay. Commissioned for a private client, it harmoniously combines the natural simplicity of wood with refined elegance, embodying Sornay's signature style of functional and sophisticated design.

The pear-shaped shade, made from rotalex, offers a subtle contrast with the wooden frame while diffusing a soft, warm light, creating a welcoming ambiance.

Manufacturer: Sornay, circa 1960.
