DESCRIPTION

Designed by André Sornay, cabinetmaker and designer from Lyon, inventor of the patented "tigette" assembly system, this wardrobe was produced by Meubles Sornay around 1960.

It is composed of a structure and a base in mahogany on a metal foot and of two-tone lacquered sliding doors. The doors have been restored by our craftsmen, in accordance with the original colors.

The left part consists of a dressing room, and on the right, several levels of storage.

With its very graphic spirit, it blends in perfectly in different interior styles and where it will bring a vintage touch.

Other colors are possible upon request.

Manufacturer : Meubles Sornay, Lyon France, 1960.
