DESCRIPTION

Console designed by Charlotte Perriand for the ski resort Les Arcs 1600 in France in the 1970s.

With a free-form design featuring a subtly angled edge, this thick, solid pine top exudes rustic charm. Originally used as a bar counter in several Les Arcs residences, including Pierra Menta and Les Lauzières, it offers versatile potential: reimagine it as a console or desk by adding suitable supports. We have preserved its beautiful, original patina, maintaining its authentic, timeworn character.

Provenance : Les Arcs 1600.
