DESCRIPTION

Model 302 dining table designed by Alain Richard in the mid-1950s and manufactured by Meubles T.V. in France.

The circular ash top rests on a slender three-leg black lacquered metal base, reflecting Alain Richard's early modernist language. The softly rounded edge enhances the refined silhouette, while the pronounced grain of the ash brings warmth and visual movement. The surface has been recently re-varnished in respect of the original design, preserving the balance between structural lightness and material presence.
