DESCRIPTION

Set of three nesting tables produced in Switzerland circa 1970.

Crafted from fossil stone, each table features a square top with softly rounded corners resting on a monolithic square pedestal. The stone is naturally embedded with fossilized cephalopods and gastropods dating back approximately 340 million years, making every piece unique and combining natural history with sculptural design.

Height : 13.0 to 16.9 in Switzerland, circa 1970.
