DESCRIPTION

Coffee table model CM 191 designed by Pierre Paulin in the late 1950s, produced by Ligne Roset.

The rectangular solid wood top with a clear finish rests on a black lacquered steel wire base composed of double V-shaped arcs, creating a light and graphic structure. The design is defined by a subtle tension between plane and line, characteristic of Paulin's early work.

The model was registered on February 26, 1959 under number 90523 and stands among Pierre Paulin's most refined
