

Blond Mahogany Chair by André Sornay, circa 1960

André Sornay

€250

REF: 2793

DESCRIPTION

Price per unit.

Chair designed by Lyon-based cabinetmaker and designer André Sornay, a visionary known for his innovative patented assembly systems.

Crafted from solid blond mahogany, the structure is expertly assembled using Sornay's signature threaded rod technique - a hallmark of his distinctive craftsmanship. The gently curved backrest enhances comfort, while the seat has been meticulously restored with Mont Blanc fabric by Nobilis in an elegant grey tone, adding a refined and timeless touch.

Manufacturer: Sornay Meubles, circa 1960