DESCRIPTION

Wink armchair by Toshiyuki Kita for Cassina, Italy, circa 1980.

An icon of 1980s Japanese design, the Wink armchair reflects Toshiyuki Kita's playful and modular vision. Its articulated backrest and adjustable footrest allow it to transform from an upright armchair into a full recliner. The welded steel frame is padded with expanded polyurethane foam and upholstered in its original fabric.

Designed in 1980 and produced by Cassina, this model stands as one of the Italian manufacturer's most iconic pieces, combining comfort, freedom of movement and technical innovation.
