DESCRIPTION

Christian Durupt, a skilled French cabinetmaker who worked in the 1960s and gained renown for his exquisite creations in solid wood. Notably, he collaborated with Charlotte Perriand in designing ski resort accommodations in the Savoie region. Steeped in history, this exceptional suite of stools originates from the Méribel ski resort in France.

The stool boasts a substantial square seat resting upon a gently tapered, four-legged base, all meticulously crafted from solid pine.
