DESCRIPTION

Claude Morin, a talented French artist, is recognized as one of the key figures in the renewal of the Art of Glass in France. In the 1970s, he established his studio in Dieulefit, where he refined his techniques and developed a distinctive style of his own.

Within this creative momentum, Claude Morin designed this set of three mouth-blown glass vases displaying a purple color gradient in varied forms. Each piece in this collection is the result of the artist's exceptional craftsmanship, made in solid-colored glass.

Dimensions vary: 11 × 15 cm (4.3 × 5.9 in) - 8.5 × 11 cm (3.3 × 4.3 in).

Signed on the base Dieulefit Morin.
