DESCRIPTION

Desk and chair from the "Ozoo" series by Marc Berthier, an innovative design created in 1967, one of the first in France to be made from molded white lacquered polyester reinforced with fiberglass.

The desk features a minimalist yet sturdy silhouette, with gently rounded edges and practical built-in elements, such as the book holder and pencil tray, seamlessly integrated into the structure.

The matching chair mirrors the desk's clean, modern design, with an ergonomic seat and a slightly curved backrest for added comfort.

This set was awarded the prestigious René Gabriel Prize in 1970, solidifying its place in the history of French design.
