Foreshore

Indian ink, acrylic ink, acrylic paint and marble dust on cardboard
32 x 23 cm

£350

"Foreshore is an abstracted response to the River Thames, focusing on the shapes and forms revealed where land and water meet.
The landscape has been reduced to angular forms and strong blocks of colour, stripping away detail to explore the essential structure of the foreshore. The painting is less a depiction of a particular place than an interpretation of the rhythms, shapes and contrasts I see within it."
