

A rare George III Wine Label made in London in 1792 by John Rich.

Description

The Label was made in London in 1792 by John Rich from workshops at 14, Tottenham Court Road. As you will see from the images, the label is rectangular, with a slightly curved form, and displays an outer bright cut and prick dot border. The face is engraved with the very rare title of MALMZEY-MADEIRA, which is a very scarce title, but even rarer having the Malmzey spelt with a "Z". It would appear that this is not a recorded name in "Wine Labels 1730-2003", a Worldwide History. The Label is in exceptional condition and is very well marked on the reverse.
